Serious and Treacherous Outbreak in Manila.

Manila, Thursday, Feb. 23, 7:30 a. m.—There was an outbreak of insurrection accompanied by fighting at Manila last evening. Casualties are few, but the loss of property is enormous. There is now fighting in the streets. A plot to massacre the Americans, which was called last week, came to a head last night, but was a failure and was suppressed with the loss of but few men.

(Later). Fire started in three parts of the city, and native sharpshooters lurked behind the corners of buildings. They shot every American in sight. Flames burst forth simultaneously from Santa Cruz, San Nicolas and Tondo. The fire lasted all night. All danger is now past.

The natives are completely cowed by the prompt work of Gen. Otia.

The Sudan Again

The Khalifa on Deck, and Making Everybody Bustle.

Cairo, Feb. 22.—The Khalifa has left Sherikia and is moving northwards with considerable force. He has been fiercely raising the Arabs along the route he is following, and the latter have become panic-stricken. Major McDougall, head of the British expedition which was sent exploring East Africa, has started for Omdurman. Major-General Hunter, the recently appointed governor of Omdurman, and other British officers on furlough, have been recalled.

A London News despatch from Cairo says the Khalifa is advancing upon Omdurman with between 15,000 and 20,000 men. Preparations are urgently proceeding to meet him.

The facts are that Col. Kitchener's scouts came in touch with the Khalifa's strongly entrenched with 10,000 men, and the British officers having only a small force, found it necessary to retire to Omdurman. The retirement from the Khalifa was effected by him as a sign of weakness, and led him to rally his forces to advance. Kitchener has 9,000 men at Omdurman.

Monopoly Thwarted for Once.

The complaint of the Sun Oil Refining Company against the tariff of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific railways upon oil, which are discriminating against them, came before the railway committee of the privy council at Ottawa this afternoon.

After a long argument the railway was weakened and announced the withdrawal of the obnoxious tariff.

West of the lake and towards the mountains the snow is unusual plentiful. In the foothills the Indians report it over two feet deep.

LEON DE MICHEL, who was being brought in by the mounted police from Lesser Slave lake, as a lunatic, died at the Landing on the road in a few days ago. The deceased was a member of one of the Klondike parties who went north during the late rush. Practically nothing is known about him and the police are anxious to discover the whereabouts of his friends or relatives in order to notify them of his death. B. Mercer, the late postmaster at Battleford, now of Edmonton. Thomas Dawson got one month for the same offence.

A MEETING was held yesterday afternoon in E. Kaymer's rooms to consider the advisability of establishing a club in Edmonton. The meeting was well attended by representative business men and the project was heartily received and supported. After considerable discussion as to ways and means, the following committee was appointed to canvass the town for members (not to exceed five in number): Messrs. A. Taylor, G. R. F. Kirkpatrick, R. A. Rutten and Dr. McInnis. The committee was authorized to collect $5 from each member and also to take such action as may be necessary for the organization of the proposed club. Another meeting will be held on the call of the committee.

TUR WOODCOCK, Rhoda Island, Reporter of Feb. 9th, publishes a report of the death of R. A. Dawson, near Macpherson, in September last of Joseph Mayer, of that place. The news was received by telegraph from Edmonton. It is the same paper. It is stated that Mayer wrote to his wife from Dawson on Nov. 17th stating that he and the party had reached Dawson on Sept. 10th, and had been in employment since Sept. 21st. Mayer was one of the LeFrancis party and went down the Macpherson last spring. Mr. and Mrs. LeFrancis returned to Woodcock, but Louis Mayer, his father Joseph Mayer, Oliver Rossy and Joseph Fraser went through to Dawson. The telegram from Edmonton was no doubt concocted in Woodcock, as no news has been received here from R. A. River as late as Nov. 1st.

REGULATION OF RAILWAY RATES.

It is not often that the BULLETIN can quote approvingly from the Toronto Globe. Not because of the lack of talent of the Globe, but because its talent has, in the humble estimation of the BULLETIN, been used rather to advance the interests of trusts and monopolies than those of the people who support it by their subscriptions. There is an old saying that when thieves fall out honest men get their due. There is a conflict at present between two monopolistic interests in the West and the Globe has seen fit to take the side which happens to be the less injurious to the public interests. The standard Oil Company, of the United States, has acquired a controlling interest in a great deal of the oil production of Canada. In order to squeeze out the remainder of the independent oil industry (which formerly was a monopoly of itself) the Standard Company has entered into an arrangement with the railway companies whereby they carry Standard oil at a lower rate than other oil. The natural and only possible result of this is that the other oil will be squeezed out. This is the method which the Standard Oil Company employed so successfully in the United States, and is what the Globe is very properly objecting to in Canada. In a recent issue, interspersed in short paragraphs of prominent type amongst other editorials occurred the following pointed remarks as to the remedy for the trouble and the responsibility for applying it:

"The railway law of Canada declares that under the same circumstances all tolls shall be charged equally to all persons, with no reduction or other advantage, directly or indirectly, in favor of or against any particular company or persons traveling upon or using the railway, and prohibits any secret rate, rebate, drawback or concession."

"It has been charged very often that the railway committee of the privy council is only a toy institution, and makes no serious attempt to use the powers conferred on it by parliament for the rectification of railway grievances and abuses. The independent oil refiners are asking this body to compel the railways to withdraw their discriminatory rates in favor of the Standard Oil Trust. The action of the committee on this petition will prove whether it is a real presence or a shadow—whether it is a registering machine for the railways or whether we really have somebody with authority to prevent the discriminatory charges of railway corporations, and with the will to exercise that authority."

"This is a free country, and no one desires to refuse to the Standard Oil Trust the right to do business in this country. But that giant concern should do business according to legitimate Canadian methods, and not strive by a secret conspiracy with the railways to destroy other Canadian industries. Justice to its competitors, not injustice to the Oil Trust, is what independent refiners ask from the railway committee, and the committee is bound to assert its full powers in order to protect the petitioners. They ask no more than the right to do a legitimate business under fair conditions."

"The railway committee of the privy council is not asked to increase or lower the railway charges for the carriage of oil. No one is asking that the committee shall fix what rates the railway may charge. No one is undertaking to say whether the rates for the carriage of oil are too high or too low. The only demand is that the rates shall be equal, and that a great industrial monopoly shall not have the power under Canadian law to make one rate for the powerful shipper and a less favorable rate for weaker concerns, and thereby crush out the smaller enterprises and substitute government by the corporations for government by the people."

TO THE YUKON

BY THE MACKENZIE ROUTE.

G. F. Ransom, of the Montreal party who passed through Edmonton in August of 1897 bound for the Yukon by the Mackenzie river route, writes to the Montreal Star from Yukon River, Alaska, on Nov. 15th.

The party got across Great Slave lake in the fall of 1897, and wintered near Fort Simpson on the Mackenzie. They left Fort Simpson on the morning of May 12th in a snow 35 feet long and nine feet beam. The party were: J. B. Deslauriers, Chas. Brown, Walter S. Steinhilber, J. Gordon Fisher, Will and Dobbin, Saul Hare (of Chicago), Maurice Panet, and G. F. Ransom.

Besides their own supplies they had 1,000 pounds of freight for the H. B. Co. posts down stream. Their boat was the first to go down stream, and it was the earliest on record. The fee of the Mackenzie above the mouth of the Liard still held firm.

At Nahanni river, 90 miles down, they met three men who had left Fort Simpson in April to find a pass through the Rockies by the Nahanni. They had been unsuccessful, and had reached the Mackenzie in a starving condition.

Campbell Young joined the party at Wrangley. They frequently caught up to the boats as they were going down the Mackenzie, and were delayed by it as well as frequently placed in danger.

On May 29th they reached Good Hope. Crossed the Arctic circle on May 31st, and reached Red River on Sunday morning, June 5th. The party divided at Red River, three going ahead in a canoe. The crew of the row took the wrong channel and did not discover their mistake until they reached the Arctic Ocean. They had to track up stream, most laborious work and causing great delay.

The date of reaching the rapids of Rat River is not given. Six boats passed them and after attempting the rapids turned back to the 90 mile portage to La Pierre's house on Bell river. Mr. Ransom's party bought three skin boats and made two themselves and swamped and they lost a good deal of their supplies. They had sent on some of their goods by Indian carriers. In five days work upstream they reached the point to which the Indians had packed overland in half a day. After taking their full loads they made seven miles the first day. In some places they had to dig a channel to get through and cut away brush. On July 4th there was a heavy snow storm. They were then amongst the mountains twelve miles from the summit. On July 12th they reached the summit, 1,150 feet above Peel river.

On July 15th they left the Summit lake to go down stream, and entered a small creek which had to be widened to let the boats through. On July 25th they passed Rampart House on the Porcupine at the boundary between Canada and Alaska.

They tracked up the Yukon to Circle city. J. Gordon Fisher and Campbell Young went on to Dawson. A new find was reported on Sam's Creek 75 miles above Circle. Ransom and Chas. Brown examined Sam's Creek, Ben's Creek and Snake Creek which were being rapidly staked, but returned to Circle. They finally located on a creek about 35 miles above Circle City where they were sinking for bed rock when the letter was written. Claims in Alaska are 1,250 feet, (compared with Klondike 250 feet), unless where the miners themselves reduce the length to 500 feet as they have done on Mastodon Creek.

There is provisions in the country for two years. Fifty steamers were plying on the Yukon last summer. Flour was $12 a hundred, bacon 40c a lb., beans 20c, sugar 25c, dried apples 35c. More liquor is brought in than anything else. It sells at $10 a bottle. On October 20th the thermometer was 18 degrees below zero. Wild cats come up to our cabin door. Moose are pretty thick, but hard to get at. Caribou are thick at certain times of the year when they cross the river here.

YOUNG MEN'S LIBERAL ASSOCIATION.
The meeting of the young men's liberal association, of Edmonton, held in Hounston's Hall on Tuesday evening was very largely attended. At the meeting a number of new members were added to the roll.

Frank Oliver, M. P., who was expected to address the meeting was unable to be present on account of having been suddenly called to Calgary.

J. H. Picard, as honorary president, welcomed the gentlemen present from the other associations, and expressed himself as proud of the liberal party since coming into power.

J. W. Shera, M. L. A., delivered a rousing speech in which he outlined the promises made by the liberal party in the Ottawa convention, and which he showed they had substantially carried out. He eulogized the present cabinet, which consist in his opinion of shrewd business men, who have the interests of the country at heart, and expressed the belief that they were they were there to stay. He had supported Frank Oliver in the last election and was proud of his parliamentary career and of the success of the liberal party. He was glad to see the young men take an interest in their country's affairs and wished them every success. His address made an excellent impression and was received with loud applause.

Dr. Ayles, president of the Fort Saskatchewan liberal association, outlined the progress of that association, showing the difficulties which had to be overcome at the time of organization previous to the elections of June 1896. They now had the largest association in Northern Alberta, and would be in evidence in case of an election. The association had full confidence in the member for Alberta and in the present government. The young liberals of Edmonton had his very best wishes. His remarks were of a very practical and interesting nature and were listened to with marked attention.

G. T. Montgomery, of Fort Saskatchewan, entertained the association for a few minutes with some very witty remarks and anecdotes.

Harrison S. Young made a short and humorous address, and also narrated some interesting anecdotes of the early days in Edmonton.

The secretary of the association, J. R. Boyle, being called upon outlined some of the objects of the association, dwelling particularly on the advantage to the young men from an educational point of view, of the debating society, which he trusted would develop some fluent speakers.

C. de W. Macdonald gave a historic resume of the two great parties, outlining the difference of the past and present of their policies and ambitions.

President C. W. Cross in a few well chosen remarks thanked the gentlemen of the older associations for the interest they had taken in the young liberals of Edmonton, and expressed his satisfaction with the rapid growth of the association.

The next meeting will be held on Monday evening, March 5th. The subject for debate being: "Resolved that the time has arrived when the Northwest Territories should be incorporated into the Dominion as one province." Dr. Whitlaw will be leader of the affirmative and A. G. Harrison of the negative side of the question.

LACOMBE

A carnival took place at the Klondike open air rink on the 16th. The ice was a little soft, so that some were unfortunate enough to receive severe falls. To all appearance the skating season is about over. Mrs. J. Taylor is receiving this week.

Mrs. J. Moreton entertained the young people last week. Mrs. E. Chegwinn also gave a very pleasant evening to her youthful friends.

Mr. Laidmen returned from Ontario last week. Mrs. Cannon and Miss Goldie returned from Edmonton last week. They brought with them a lady friend, Mrs. Tonielli.

A social was given at Mrs. McKendrick's, also one at Mrs. Cannon's. The immigration committee have decided to print about 10,000 circulars setting forth the good qualities of the country around Lacombe.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Sims. It is expected that the happy couple will soon arrive from England. A new engine, 40 horse power, has arrived for G. I. Clink's saw mill at Gull Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Frost, of Banff, are spending a few days in Lacombe. The buyers of cattle are quite busy getting ready for the spring shipment.

The wife of H. Reynolds gave birth to a daughter on the 12th. Feb. 18, '99.

BLACKLEG AND ANTHRAX

EDITOR BULLETIN.

The following valuable information I have just received from a gentleman of wide experience in treating diseases of cattle. He says: "Blackleg is the most prevalent and fatal disease amongst cattle, and it is quite distinct from anthrax, although both are germ diseases. The germs enter the animal usually with food, but sometimes through a sore or scratch. These germs are very hardy and live in the soil for many years. They may be carried long distances and the place where an animal has died of either anthrax or blackleg will certainly communicate the disease to animals pasturing near it, even grass cut near the spot will cause infection when eaten by cattle. These germs multiply so rapidly that an entire neighborhood may be infected from a single case."

The symptoms of blackleg are swellings or tumors under the skin. These are generally found on the thighs, though they may appear on the neck, shoulder, breast or flank. When the swelling is handled it makes a peculiar crackling noise, and if cut into a frothy, unpleasant smelling fluid is discharged. High fever and dullness ensue, and death results in about eight hours.

"In anthrax there is seldom any swelling, but great uneasiness, champing of the jaws and spasms of the limbs, the nose and mouth becoming of a bluish tinge. Death occurs generally in two days. The blood is as thick as tar and quite blackish in color."

"These diseases are so infectious, and so terribly fatal that where once they appear the most determined efforts should be made to check them and the greatest care should be taken in handling diseased carcasses, as infection is dangerous to human beings."

"I am of the opinion that blackleg is more likely to occur in Alberta than anthrax, as you are so far north."

"In three months 970 cattle died of blackleg in five counties in Illinois, but vaccination was practiced at once and infected animals destroyed so that the disease was soon got under control."

"Both these diseases are incurable, but they can be prevented by vaccination with the proper virus discovered by Pasteur and which is now extensively used in Europe and America with the very best results."

"You will require a proper syringe and other instruments to inject the vaccine, and should lose no time in operating on your cattle more especially calves and yearlings, which invariably are the first to sicken, and which if unvaccinated are almost sure to die."

Messrs. Armitage, Irwin, Toner, myself, and several other farmers in this settlement, are combining to obtain the necessary instruments and vaccine, and I shall be glad to reply to any enquiries by letter on the subject if addressed to me by farmers who desire to vaccinate stock."

As soon as frosty nights are past we may expect to see blackleg worse than ever.

Yours truly,
T. G. PRANCE.

WHITFISH LAKE

Indiana are busy hauling logs to the saw mill.

Stock is mostly all in market condition and wintering splendidly.

Dr. Aylen visited us and treated all the ailing.

A most delightful evening was spent on Feb. 3rd, at Goodfish Lake school house. The building was most artistically decorated with flags, bunting, evergreens, etc. Beside the temporary stage stood a Xmas tree fairly groaning under its load of good things for both old and young. Upon Mr. Agent Sibbald taking the chair the evening's amusement began. Speeches, songs, recitations, &c. by Mrs. Glass and Messrs. Glass and Smith, and a long program by the pupils, who all went through their part in a manner that would compare favorably with any school in the Territories. Old Santa Claus arrived and made the hearts of the little ones jump with joy by unloading the tree and distributing the good things. A hearty vote of thanks was passed thanking Mr. and Mrs. Smith for their excellent Xmas tree and entertainment. The meeting closed by all singing the doxology. Santa Claus desires to thank Rose Bros, Morris & Co., and Mr. Henry, of Edmonton, for helping to load his pack for the little ones.

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION ASSOCIATION.

A largely attended meeting was held in Robertson Hall on Tuesday evening to form an agricultural association and to acquire a suitable site for a public park and race track.

A society to be called the "Edmonton Industrial Association," was formed and the following were appointed provisional directors: John A. McDougall, Thos. Bellamy, Wm. Short, J. H. Morris, C. E. Emery, C. Gallagher, R. F. Kirkpatrick, S. Larue, and W. S. Robertson. Mr. Emery was also appointed secretary-treasurer of the association.

It was decided to hold another meeting in Robertson Hall on Tuesday next, the 28th inst. when a vote on the different proposed sites would be taken. A call of ten per cent on the subscribed capital will be made, and only those shareholders who have paid their 10 per cent will be eligible to vote on the question.

The directors propose to improve the site selected by fencing it and building a race track, and will also probably hold a local agricultural show.

The capital stock of the association will be $20,000 of which $11,000 has already been subscribed.

COUNCIL MEETING.

At the regular meeting of the council held on Tuesday night the mayor and a full council were present.

Messrs. Durdle and Humberstone were granted free licenses for the coming summer on the same terms as those granted Mr. Durdle last season.

Receipt of $8.15 being balance on hand over expenses re Oliver reception committee, and donated by the committee to the town health and relief fund, was acknowledged with thanks.

Communication of the fire brigade asking for an annual grant of $150 in place of present small grants, was referred to fire, water and light committee.

A letter was read from R. M. Springer setting forth his project of an ice locomotive which he claimed would revolutionize travel in the north, and asking that the town take $25,000 worth of capital stock in it, and supply his company with a plant. Mr. Springer was informed that the council did not see its way clear to entertain his proposition.

A communication from C. W. Sutter asking what the chances were of renting the Columbia House for the accommodation of settlers in the spring was laid over till next meeting. Mr. Sutter states in his letter: "There is going to be quite a number from Illinois and Indiana go up with me to Edmonton, and I have assured them that good accommodation will be provided for them by the people of Edmonton."

Mr. Heimick's letter asking that the sidewalk between Morris & Co. and Montgomery's store be removed as it encroached on his property, was referred to the town solicitor.

An application for the position of scavenger was received from Jas. McLean, Neil Patterson, the former scavenger, having returned to Portage la Prairie.

The report of the special immigration accommodation committee was received and adopted.

Report of fire brigade auditors was filed.

Report of the Grand rapid improvement committee showing a deficit of $45 and asking that the town assume it, was referred back to the committee, the council stating that as they did not incur the indebtedness they would advise that the amount be raised by private subscription.

The mayor reported verbally that with regard to the McDougall street extension, H. C. Taylor had recommended the transferring by the Methodist mission to the town, free of charge, that part of their property marked red on Mr. Chalmers' sketch, on the town acquiring from Mr. Heimick the part of his property necessary to complete the street at the head of Ross' grade, also that efforts will be made to open up and produce College avenue beyond the old Salvation army barracks.

Mr. Beck was re-engaged as town solicitor and Dr. Braithwaite as medical health officer.

AS TO IMMIGRATION.

Rev. Father Morin, one of the most successful, as he is one of the most enthusiastic, agents of colonization in the Northwest is reported to have given the following as his opinion of Doukhobors and Galician immigration: "I am well persuaded, that it would cost the government to bring in French Canadians, Germans and Irish from the western states nothing like what it would cost in the case of the Doukhobors, for example, who are quite destitute, and who will need to be assisted for at least the first year."

"As for the Galicians, I have not met a single person in the whole of the Northwest who is sympathetic toward them. They are, from the point of view of civilization, ten times lower than the Indians. They have not the least idea of sanitation. In many cases they have been content with building themselves holes in the ground, where the family consorts with the animals—all in one common apartment."

MOO LAKE.

We have had no church service here for some time now, but there will be mass at the school house next Sunday by the parish priest from St. Pierre.

The bishop, it is said, will shortly pay us a visit to decide upon a suitable site for a church.

A Rottor wears a beaming smile these days; it is a young daughter.

The shareholders and others interested in the proposed Morinville flour mill held a meeting at that place recently and decided to make arrangements for building this coming summer. A few shares are yet to be signed for, but it is expected that they will be taken up shortly.

J. Norris, cattle buyer, took a business trip around here last week.

Paul Chalfault and his youngest son, Narcisse, have gone on a second trip to the Pembina in search of fur.

Messrs. J. Short and A. L'Hirondelle have gone on a freighting and trading expedition to Lesser Slave lake, and expect to be absent about a month. They go via Athabasca Landing and thence up the river. We wish them a successful trip.

A. Cunningham, of Lake St. Anne, came in from there recently. The fishing season has not been as remunerative there as last year.

There is a good deal of sickness around here yet and a little child of Theodore Savard's is hardly expected to recover.
